John Marshall Court Jigsaw Class Activity

John Marshall became the fourth chief justice of the U.S. Supreme Court in 1801. He is largely responsible for establishing the Supreme Court's role in federal government.

Directions: Follow the prompts below to complete the class activity. Use the textbook pages provided to find your information. Home Group #: _____

Step #1: First, work with your HOME GROUP to research key events which took place during your assigned U.S. Supreme Court Case.

Assigned case: _____

Step #2: Next, decide together the FIVE (5) most important pieces of information from your study of the assigned court case. These five facts will be what you will “teach” to your new group in step #3.

Step #3: Following your research with your home group, each of you will be divided out into separate groups to disseminate (teach) the information you just researched. Place the NEW information that you LEARN inboxes provided below: (Don't forget to LABEL) each box with the court case name!

Expert Box:

I have already learned (enter your court case name here) _____ in my home group during step #1.

Check over your work!
Do you have FIVE (5) pieces of information for FOUR (4)
boxes featured on this worksheet???
